

Back Home Again in Indiana

The 70-stop Seward Organ, C. B. Fisk, Opus 135, in Auer Hall. Read more about the installation and April 2010 dedication of this instrument at music.indiana.edu/department/organ.

PIPE ORGAN ENCOUNTER

hosted by Indiana University Jacobs School of Music

JUNE 21-26
2010

For more information, contact Dr. David Lamb
at lambd61@sbcglobal.net.

Jacobs Organ Department Faculty
Janette Fishell, Professor and Chair
Jeffrey Smith, Visiting Associate Professor
Christopher Young, Professor

2010 Audition Dates
January 15 & 16
February 5 & 6
March 5 & 6

JACOBS SCHOOL OF MUSIC

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
Bloomington

music.indiana.edu

Make plans now to be part of this week of inspiration and exploration, which will include

- Internationally-acclaimed faculty
- Experience on a wide range of instruments, including the C. B. Fisk, Opus 135 in Auer Hall
- Introductory classes in carillon, harpsichord, organ tuning, and church music skills
- Inspiring evening events, including a silent movie with improvised accompaniment in historic IU Auditorium and a picnic concert at the Metz Carillon
- An unforgettable week at one of the nation's most beautiful college campuses.