From the Dean

Dear all,

As we get back to work after a restful Thanksgiving, the AGO looks back on a productive November and ahead to events that will wrap up 2012.

Indiana University welcomed recitalist Jonathan Biggers the week before Thanksgiving. Students greatly enjoyed his masterclass on Tuesday, November 13 and his solo recital the following day in Auer Hall. For pictures of the event, please see page 3.

The month of November also saw a number of great student recitals, which wrapped up November 30 with the final auditorium recital of this semester. The mighty Schantz in the auditorium welcomed William Bryant and Matthew Leone. Thank you to everyone who has made this recital series a success, and we look forward to 3 more recitals come 2013!

The AGO now begins work on our annual concert of sacred choral and organ music, “Choralfest.” Read-through sessions have begun, and full rehearsals will begin in January with two performances in early February. We look forward to welcoming and working with talented student conductors, accompanists, and singers in what promises to be a terrific and rewarding project.

Everyone is welcome to the AGO Christmas party which will wrap up our year on Friday, December 7. For details on the event, see below.

Happy practicing and perusal!

Katie Timm

Members are always welcome to meetings of the Chapter Executive Committee. The next scheduled meeting is Friday, Dec. 7 at 1pm. Contact an Executive Committee member for details.

Prof. Colin Andrews: 2012 In Review

During 2012, Colin Andrews, Adjunct Professor of Music in Organ at Indiana University, completed 30 touring engagements in such diverse countries as Australia, South Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, Great Britain, France, Denmark, Sweden, and Russia.

Highlights from these trips include recitals at St. Paul’s Cathedral (London), Moscow Cathedral, (Russia), Westminster Cathedral (London), St. Wenzel’s Church (Naumburg, Germany), Bordeaux Cathedral (France), and Lilia Hall (Tokyo, Japan); and masterclasses and recitals for students at The Hong Kong Academy of the Performing Arts (Seoul, South Korea), Presbyterian College and Theological Seminar (Seoul), and at Seoul Theological University.

Mr. Andrews also recorded a double CD of Olivier Messiaen’s piece “Livre du Saint Sacrement” on Indiana University’s Fisk organ in Auer Hall. This recording comprises volumes 5 and 6 of a 7-CD series of the complete works of Messiaen for the Gothic/Loft label.

In May 2012, the Association Grand Orgue Messiaen, based at the church of La Trinite in Paris, named Colin Andrews a “Membre d’Honneur” in recognition of his many years of work with the composer’s music.
