REGISTRATION DEADLINE is Thursday, September 11th

Camp registration includes overnight cabin and dining hall facilities, indoor bathrooms with showers, Friday night snack, two meals plus snack on Saturday, instruction, music, fun activities, and supervision. Parents provide transportation to and from Bradford Woods. Registration covers actual cost (this is not a profit-making venture for the choir). Registration is $50.00 per camper ($45.00 for each additional camper from the same family), and will be on a first-come basis.

Camp begins on Friday, September 18, with arrival between 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. and ends Saturday, September 19 with a performance for parents from 2:30-3:30 p.m. Activities will include musical games, skits, rehearsals, and a hike. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks will be provided. The children will get a chance to spend time with new choir friends and get to know their directors in a relaxed atmosphere.

Campers will be supervised by a staff made up of IU Music Education students and IU Children’s Choir parents, as well as their choir directors. A CPR- and first aid-trained parent will be on hand at all times to dispense medicines and in case of emergencies. The children will sleep on beds in heated cabins, but must furnish sleeping bags or bedding. A suggested list of items to bring, as well as travel information/map, is provided below. Completed registration/medical consent/risk release forms and choir camp fees are due by the close of choir practice on Thursday, September 11. Fees will be non-refundable after this date. Since space is limited, we encourage you to turn in your materials as soon as possible.

“Home base” will be the Carr Center in Lilly Village, and campers will register at the Carr Center in Lilly Village upon arrival at Bradford Woods, and where many large group activities will take place.

Choir camp is a unique opportunity for the ensembles to be together. Choir members will grow musically, while having fun with their friends at the same time. We hope your child will join us at Bradford Woods!
If you have any questions about choir camp, or would be interested in helping as a chaperone, please contact Colleen Hughes at cjhughes1984@gmail.com. Parents are asked to pay their own fees, if possible.
