Society of the Friends of Music of Indiana University

Dear Music Friends,

Anita Cast

Most of you are familiar with the name of our organization, the Society of the Friends of Music. Did you know that Herman B Wells started it 45 years ago, and that the Friends have continued to serve the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music ever since? How do the Friends serve?

We are the strong voice of advocacy for the school.

We present events focused on the outstanding Jacobs School of Music.

But most importantly, we raise as much money as we can to fund scholarships for talented, deserving music students.

Ours is a clear and important mission. We encourage your membership in this organization. Your membership dollars go directly to scholarship funding.

If you join by early February 2008, you will be invited to a special concert on March 7, Sylvia McNair and Friends, followed by a private reception for members and soloists. This concert is for Friends only. Assure yourself an invitation by joining the Friends of Music today. I look forward to seeing you at the recital.

Sincerely,

Join Music Lovers to Bring Best, Brightest to Bloomington

The Society of the Friends of Music is a group of enthusiastic music lovers whose goal is to help the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music bring the best and the brightest students from around the world to study in Bloomington. We do this through raising money for the Friends of Music Scholarship Fund, which presented almost $400,000 in scholarships to young musicians at IU for the 2007–2008 school year. All contributions to the Friends of Music Scholarship Fund are tax deductible to the extent allowed by state and federal law.

Joining the Friends of Music will not only make you feel good about contributing to young musicians' futures, but will also put you in touch with a wonderful group of music lovers like yourself. All members are invited to special Friends of Music events and are kept informed about music happenings through Libretto, the Friends of Music newsletter; IUMusic, the Jacobs School of Music magazine; and Prelude, the monthly listing of Jacobs School of Music programs.

Donors of $100 and above are recognized in all opera and ballet programs. Members who donate $1,000 or more can receive reserved parking at the Musical Arts Center. Those who give $5,000 and above are matched with a designated scholarship student for friendship purposes.

We make a difference in young people's lives. Please join us in our efforts. ●

Celebrating a wonderful concert on September 8 are, from left, Michael A. McRobbie, president of Indiana University; Anita Cast, president of the Friends of Music; André Watts, IU Jacobs School of Music piano faculty and soloist for the evening; and Laurie Burns McRobbie, Friends of Music board member.

Friends Event Helps Launch Concert Season

The Society of the Friends of Music saluted the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music on September 8 at the opening concert of the 2007–2008 orchestral season. The program featured the Philharmonic Orchestra, led by David Effron, playing Beethoven’s Fifth Symphony, with pianist André Watts joining the orchestra for Beethoven’s Piano Concerto No. 5.

The evening began with a dinner for members of the Friends of Music in the lobby of the Musical Arts Center. This was followed by a special Friends of Music Showcase before the concert, which was staged specifically for patrons of the evening’s events. Featured was Christopher Bolduc, baritone, who is not only a former Friends of Music scholarship recipient, but also a Friends of Music Travel Grant winner. He was joined by pianist Dean Emeritus Charles Webb, an honorary Friends of Music board member, for the program.

The evening’s events were wrapped up with a private reception—A Toast to André for Gold and Silver Patrons. Honorary chair for the event was David Jacobs Jr., who accepted an honorary Friends of Music board membership. The event co-chairs were Henry Uppner and Jan Chapline. ●

Friends of Music Scholarships Make an Important Difference

by Melissa Korzec

Mirosław Witkowski, a recipient of the Carmack Scholarship in both 2006 and 2007, can't stress enough how much receiving a Friends of Music Scholarship means to him.

Witkowski comes to the Jacobs School of Music from Poland, where he received a master's degree from the Music Academy in Lodz, in 2006. He is currently pursuing a performance diploma in voice, under the tutelage of Timothy Noble. "I came to the Jacobs School of Music because I wanted to study in one of the best music schools in the world," says Witkowski. "This scholarship is a great help for me and, thanks to Dr. Carmack's kindness and financial support, I am able to fulfill my dreams of studying here."

Being a Friends of Music Scholarship recipient allows Witkowski to focus on his studies, as well as prepare for upcoming auditions. Since arriving at the Jacobs School in 2006, he has performed with IU Opera Theater in the roles of the Commendatore in Don Giovanni, Bonzo in Madama Butterfly, and Coline in La Bohème. He is currently preparing the role of Bartolo for the February 2008 production of Le Nozze di Figaro.

This summer, Witkowski auditioned and won the opportunity to sing as the Resident Artist in the Cincinnati Opera, where he performed the role of Wagner in Gounod's Faust. "It was an honor to be there. From over 600 singers, the committee chose only 6," he says. "Without Dr. Carmack's generous help, I would not have had such opportunities to develop my talent and to be able to learn from so many teachers, artists, and world-class professionals." ●
