

Doctor of Music coursework, qualifying exams, and final project

Major field coursework (usually including a certain number of recitals)

Minor field
coursework-First minor

Minor field
coursework –
Second minor

Tool subjects
and proficiencies

Start work on topic proposal

Apply to start qualifying exams in or just before final semester of coursework.

Topic proposal approval (most fields)

Major field written exam

Minor field written exam – first minor

Minor field written exam
– second minor

Oral qualifying exam

Perform remaining recitals and work on final project

Submit Final Project written component to Music Graduate Office

Apply for graduation

Make Public presentation

Submit bound copies of written component