

Jubilate!

Newsletter of the Bloomington Chapter of the American Guild of Organists

A Word from the Dean

Heartfelt greetings to all! I sincerely hope you all are doing well in your studies and church work, and that the stress of student and church life isn't too overwhelming. Be sure to include some stress-relieving activities in your weekly routine to help clear your mind before that important presentation or rehearsal.

Our AGO chapter has a great event coming up this month: our Pipes SPOOKtacular concert. We've had several inquiries already from the community about this event so I anticipate a large crowd. Hillary has done some great work thus far and could still use some additional help. Please contact her to offer your assistance. Rob has obtained some exciting door prizes and our program has some interesting pieces both of which you won't want to miss. I hope to see most of you either participating or attending this event if you are able to. Come be a part of this FUN event!

Please continue to send your thoughts and prayers to Dr. Keiser as she continues her recovery from back surgery.

Bloomington AGO Upcoming Events

This past Friday, the Bloomington AGO held their first "AGO Member Recital" at University Lutheran Church. The host organist, Andrea Boudra, displayed her improvisational skills as she introduced the Charles Wesley hymn "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling". The fifteen people in attendance joined in singing as Andrea presented reharmonizations on several of the verses. The recital continued with fine performances by Judith Ofcarcik, Andrew Chislett and Derek Stauff. Thanks to Juan Mesa for his coordination of this event and to Hillary Sullivan for printing the program. Many thanks to the Andrea, Judith, Andy and Derek for their willingness to play at this, our first AGO event!

Mark your calendars now for our next Member Recital: Friday, November 2nd @ 12:15 pm at First United Methodist Church in Bloomington (location tentative).

Please contact Juan Mesa (mesaja@gmail.com) if you are interested in playing for this recital. It would be wonderful if one of our non-IU student members would be available to play.

Friday, October 26 @ 7 pm: Pipes SPOOKtacular at St. Thomas Lutheran Church in Bloomington. Andy Kotylo is the host organist.

Hillary Sullivan has posted two signup sheets for this event on the 3rd floor of the Annex. Organists are still needed to play an organ piece or to be a part of the "Bach Toccata Tag Team". Please sign up or email Hillary at hjsulliv@indiana.edu. Watch for an upcoming email announcing an afternoon of posting flyers about the Pipes SPOOKtacular event. All are invited to help post these flyers. We will certainly need and appreciate your assistance.

Student Degree Recitals

Please attend these recitals to support and encourage your colleagues and friends.
