A Word from the Dean

Dear Guild Members,

Happy end of the semester to everyone and congratulations to those who are graduating! The Bloomington Chapter of the AGO celebrated the end the semester with a wonderful party at the Wood residence on Lake Lemon Saturday, April 28th. The weather cooperated and a great time was had by all sitting on Tom's fabulous deck, playing frisbee or going for boat rides on the lake. Thanks Tom and Sarah for hosting the event!

There are many exciting events happening this summer in the area. The Organ Historical Society is coming to Indiana from July 12th-17th. The convention will feature organs by six Indiana builders, past and present, and 17 American Organ Builders. Noted recitalists include Ken Cowan, Marilyn Keiser, Thomas Murray and Christopher Young. A special treat will be the chance to hear the only remaining example of the work of Indianapolis organ builder Thomas Sandborn. This tracker organ was built around 1883 and has been restored by Michael Rahtke. It is now in St. Marks Church, Bloomington and will be demonstrated by Christopher Young of the IU faculty on Monday afternoon, July 16th.

Finally, I'd like to thank the present AGO board members for all their help this last year and to announce the new AGO board members for next year. Present newsletter editor Chris Schroeder will be taking over as Dean and Monica Harper will be the new Sub-dean. New board members at large will be Beverly McGahey, Juan Mesa, Rob Keene and Dr. Young will be the faculty advisor. Elaine Sonnenberg will stay as treasurer, Hillary Sullivan as secretary, and Tom Wood as member at large.

Best wishes,

Andy Chislett

I wish you all a relaxing and blessed summer!
